

1. Cut along the solid lines of the template.
2. Fold along the dotted lines. The propeller blades (Wings A and B) should be folded in opposite directions. X and Y fold toward the center, and Z is folded up to give the body rigidity, and lower the center of gravity.